Population Density by County, 2016

This dot density map show the distribution of the population across Nova. Each dot represents the location of 400 people. Dot density maps are a great way to visualize the populations distribution across an area and make it easy to see where the population is located.

It is easy to see the large concentrations of Nova Scotia's population in urban centers, notably Halifax, Truro, New Glasgow and Sydney.

Digby

armouth

			On	e dot = 40	0 people
N	0	25	50	100	150	20	0
W							Kilometers

Lunenburg

Queens

County	Population	Population Density
Annapolis	20,591	6.5/km ²
Antigonish	19,301	13.2/km ²
Cape Breton	98,722	40.0/km ²
Colchester	50,585	13.9/km ²
Cumberland	30,005	7.0/km ²
Digby	17,323	6.9/km ²
Guysborough	7,625	1.9/km ²
Halifax	403,390	73.4/km ²
Hants	42,558	13.9/km ²
Inverness	17,235	4.5/km ²
Kings	60,600	28.5/km ²
Lunenburg	47,126	16.2/km ²
Pictou	43,748	15.4/km ²
Queens	10,351	4.3/km ²
Richmond	8,964	7.2/km ²
Shelburne	13,966	5.7/km ²
Victoria	7,089	2.5/km ²
Yarmouth	24,419	11.5/km ²
Total	921,727	17.4/km²

Nova Scotia Atlas - Plate 2